

Print Media S.A Fellows – 2002 Awards

Winners

01

Brian Pottinger

Brian Pottinger is recognised for his initial insight and subsequent huge, untiring leadership, diplomacy and guidance contributed in the PDU project and the MDDA negotiation process.

02

Don Robertson

Don Robertson has contributed over ten years of good relationship and untiring involvement to the highly respected Mondi/MPASA Magazine Journalism Awards, the Annual Mondi Banquet and the Mondi/NASA Newspaper Journalism Awards.

03

Graham Langmead

Graham was appointed as CEO of Print Media SA in 1998 after years of distinguished work in the marketing world. He brought to the PMSA vision and enthusiasm and followed his mandate to elevate the organisation's profile and build its international stature. In an increasingly complex economic and political environment, Graham guided PMSA with skill, dedication and unswerving integrity.

04

Hugo Redelinghuys

Hugo Redelinghuys received this award for his enthusiasm with the Community Press in South Africa and his immeasurable contribution to the successful annual Sanlam Community Press Awards and surrounding events for the past 12 years.

05

John Frewin

John Frewin has dedicated over 25 years unbroken involvement and contribution to the Community Press Association structures which included Chairmanship of the organisation in 1989-1991

06

Jon Drake

Jon Drake contributed years of selfless service and advice to the Print Media SA Technical Committee, including eight years as Chairman of the Committee.

07

Martin Dannheisser

Martin gave unstinting service over a lengthy period to the Community Press Association, including Chairmanship from 1987-1989.