

Print Media S.A Fellows – 2005 Awards

Winners

01

Nazeem Howa

Howa has served the media industry extensively in his roles as a journalist, journalism trainer and trade unionist. He was part of the media team managing Nelson Mandela's release from prison, and now he is one of the top managers at Independent Newspapers from where he continues to serve the media industry. Nazeem serves on the boards of SAPA, ABC and Allied Publishing. He has given his time to the Print Media SA on various committees.

02

Tony Howard

For the past three decades, Tony Howard has played an active role in the industry. He has contributed as a Director on Print Media SA and the Newspaper Association of SA Boards. He has also played a key role in the negotiations with government in the establishing of the Media Development and Diversity Agency, and in cementing the industry's approach to newsprint consumption.

03

Volker Kühnel

Kühnel played a key role in developing more accurate readership figures and generally maintaining and upholding industry standards. His enthusiasm is infectious, his influence enormous and his footprint is a challenge to anyone in sales and marketing. Volker started work at Nasionale Pers in the magazine division and worked through every aspect of magazine publishing.